Cornwells Man Hurt
In Car Crash Near Here

John H. Vandegrift, Cornwells Heights, was injured yesterday afternoon in an automobile crash on the Bristol Pike, opposite the Bristol Cemetery.

Vandegrift was driving west and a machine operated by Russell Scher, 4617 Comly street, Philadelphia, was traveling east. Vandegrift sustained cuts on the head and left knee. He was taken to the Harriman Hospital.
Some of the occupants of the Russell car had left the scene but later were reported as having been injured, and having gone to Torresdale.
Both cars were considerably damaged.

BRISTOL HIGH TO PLAY
MORRISVILLE TOMORROW

Members of Both Teams Are In Fine Physical Condition

AT MORRISVILLE FIELD

(By Jack Orr)

The Bristol Bunny garbed in its best array of Cardinal and Gray will invade the rampart of the Morrisville Bulldog, in their traditional clash tomorrow.

Both clubs will enter the fray in the best physical and mental shape possible and a great contest is expected.
Bristol High will probably be the favorite in the game although the outcome is by no means considered a set-up.

This clash brings to mind the Villa-nova-Temple annual game. Temple usually drives through their schedule and when they buck the Wildcats from VillaNova expect a breather. Villa-nova on the other hand play over their heads when they meet Pop Warner's crew and this year succeeded in turning back the Owls.

This may happen again on the morrow. Bristol, confident of victory after comparing their season scores, will enter the House of the Bulldog with spirits high, but the Blue and Gold will play over their heads in an attempt to score their first victory over Bristol in seven starts.

Seven times these two clubs have met and on six of these occasions the Bristolians have turned in triumphs.
One game ended in a tie so Coach John Hoffman's lads are sure they are going to be the first ones to turn the trick.

The good right foot of Captain Craig White, Bulldog quarter back, is expected to give the visiting Bunnies plenty of opposition when they attempt to cross that final white chalk mark. The other Morrisville ball toters are Jack Margerum, Ed. Byrne and John Pidcock.

Bristol High will have four seniors

Elks Have Successful
Turkey Chase in Club

In a merry scramble for turkeys, 31 members were successful in capturing chase held last night in the club house of the local lodge at Walnut and Radcliffe streets.

Members from all over Bucks County, and visiting members from Burlington lodge, helped make the affair one of the most successful ever held.
Furman Young caught the first turkey, a 14-lb bird.

Others to get that famous Thanksgiving gobbler were: J. Nalvon, Burlington, who got two; Frank Voit, another double winner; Charles Redish, of Freehold; Andrew Jackson, Samuel Pearson, Clarence Winters, Edward Renk, Edward Priestley, Ramus Klein (2), John Brehm, Wayne Minor, Vic Morgan (2), Elwood Goslin (2), Pierre McLaine and Walter Buchler.

The rest of the successful ones were Amos Bond, Owen Evans, Dayton Fegley, Ralph Ratcliffe, Maxwell Gordon, William O'Dea, John Kessler, Albert Sommerfeld and Chauncey Stoneback, Jr.

the tune of a good orchestra.

Report Revolt

Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 27.—Revolt against the government of President Getulio Vargas, broke out in two points in Rio de Janeiro, today as the revolution spread. Troops immediately launched an attack comprised of two infantry battalions of the government military aviation school and a few hours later the government announced the situation was well in hand.

The revolution broke out at two o'clock this morning as Captain Agui-naldo Barata and two battalions of the 3rd Infantry declared themselves in opposition to the government.

They radioed to other army units urging adhesion to the movement.
They turned against their officers.

Federal troops immediately launched an attack and warned their headquarters. After a few shots the rebels surrendered. The first regiment commanded by Colonel Eduardo Gomez used heavy artillery guns.

TWO BROTHERS HELD FOR THEFT FROM BRIER STORE

Confession Made by One Implicates Other, According To the Police

PLANNED THE JOB

Albert Barnhart, Newportville, was held in $500 bail for court yesterday at a hearing before Justice of Peace James Guy in the Municipal Building.
Barnhart admitted to the police that he took two pairs of trousers and a pair of socks from the store of B.
Brier, Mill and Bath streets.

In the confession which Barnhart alleged to have made to the Bristol police, he implicated his brother, Edward. The latter was arrested yesterday afternoon and he likewise was held in $500 bail for court.

According to the police, Albert Barnhart told them that he and his brother planned to rob the Brier store. The two were to enter the store and while Edward had Mr. Brier engaged in conversation about another purchase, Albert was to take the things.

The two entered the store and Edward went to one side of the room with Mr. Brier in regard to making another purchase. Albert then got busy and stuffed two pairs of trousers under his coat and a pair of socks in his pocket. Mrs. Brier coming down a stairway leading into the store, saw the man take the trousers and so informed her husband. Barnhart was caught on the street by Brier who recovered his merchandise. Barnhart was later arrested by Chief Jones as he was found hiding between Otter street and the Highway.

TELLS STUDENTS ABOUT
FLIGHT AT SOUTH POLE

William S. McCormick, of Byrd Expedition Fame,
Visits Cornwells Hts.

ARRIVES IN AUTOGIRO

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Nov. 27.— William S. McCormick, the first and only person ever to fly an autogiro over the South Polar regions, came to the Bensalem Township High School yesterday afternoon to address the high school student body. Mr. McCormick, autogiro pilot of the Second Byrd Antarctic Expedition, flew here in an autogiro.

Although only 20 years of age when he was singled out to accompany the Byrd Expedition, McCormick was one of the first to fly an autogiro, receiving the first autogiro transport license granted by the Department of Commerce in May, 1931. He started to fly at the age of 16, while still in junior high school, and at the age of 19, in addition to his autogiro license, was also the possessor of a transport pilot's license for conventional type aircraft.

The rescue by Byrd and McCormick mentioned in part of his address, appeared to be one of the most dramatic incidents of the expedition. Bowlin, flying the Pilgrim monoplane, Miss American Airways, had reported by radio that he had lost the southern trail back to the base in a dense fog and had landed rather than risk missing Little America and perhaps fly over Ross Sea.
Apprised of his difficulty, Admiral Byrd and McCormick took off in the Snowman, a ship used extensively for exploration and scientific work in the South Pole, guiding a ground party traveling with dog teams. Where the plane, flown by Bowlin, had landed was uncertain. The temperature was warm for the Antarctic (15 degrees below zero) but a 35 mile wind was blowing. Lifting sheets of drift, and pushing the light Snowman around with its force, making control difficult and landing hazardous. The Snowman had crossed Amundsen Arm and was over the high Barrier when Mc-Cormick saw a vague speck a considerable distance to the east. He swung the Snowman to the east and for 24 minutes flew toward it, bucking the high wind. Not until they were almost on top of it, Admiral Byrd later disclosed, did they recognize it as the lost plane. Both men were asleep in their fur bags in their pup tents, close to their airplane. They did not wake up until the Admiral pushed open the tent flap, and were mighty glad to see him.

McCormick came to Bensalem from the Camden Airport. After circling the athletic field, here, he settled his plane very gracefully, close to the white canvas which was placed there as a signal to designate the field. The members of the student body had taken their places along the north and west sides of the field. After a few moments, the autogiro could be heard

NAME W. H. PITZONKA VICE-CHAIRMAN OF
DIST SCOUT BOARD

Chosen at Meeting Held Last Night in Keystone
Hotel

RECHECK DISTRICT PLAN

Discussion Group Follows and Plans for 1936 Are Outlined

Walter W. Pitzonka, vice-chairman of the Lower Bucks District Scout Board, was elected district chairman, last evening, at the scout board meeting conducted in the Keystone Hotel.
Mr. Pitzonka has been known for his keen interest in the local boys' work through being chairman of the Bristol No. 7 Troop Committee that meets at his farm. For several years, he has been the chairman of the training committee and a member of the executive board of the Bucks County Scouting Council. David Landreth, the retiring district chairman, becomes a member of the advisory board of the Scouting Council.

It was decided the two offices of district vice chairman would remain vacant until the February meeting.
L. H. Willhite asked the blessing. Old songs of bygone days were sung, being led by Alvin Marshall, Sr., Cornwells.
Arrangements for the evening had been made by Joseph Mountney.

The Standard Merit Badge Review Board procedure of three meetings during the year, and the merit badge combination plan of Counsellors was presented by Merit Badge Commissioner Jesse Wendkos. District Commissioner Herbert A. Pettit, Sr., introduced Neighborhood Commissioners David Neill, Joseph Mountney, A. B.
Stiles, William Amick, Jr., and Harry E. Oliver, who reported on the condition of their units.

Scout Executive William F. Liver-more rechecked the six-district plan of council organization. The responsibility of the volunteer, and the 1936 program as outlined were approved. A discussion group followed as to what would be the most effective way to celebrate the Tenth Anniversary of the Bucks County Scouting Council starting with the County Camporee in June 1936, and concluding with Scouting Day, April 1937. Unit old-timers' night, Buccoo dedication, and a number of other monster activities were discussed. During the general discussion period it was made clear to everyone that Scouting is a non-racial, non-political, and non-military movement for the character building, and citizenship guidance of youth from 9 to 18 years.

Representatives present at the board meeting were: Committeemen James Hetherington; Scoutmasters Herbert A. Pettit, Jr., Robert Downing, and Elton C. Lindsey; and Cubmaster Ralph B. Scheffey, of Bristol; Troop Committee Chairman Charles F. Weller, and Scoutmaster C. Ronald Swain of Edgely; Chairman of the Ship Committee Robert F. Brenner, Sr., Committeeman William D. Knight, Skipper Robert F. Brenner, Jr., and Scoutmaster Ludwig Tregl of Croydon; Assistant Scoutmaster William Amick, Jr., of Cornwells; Committeemen William Lange, Sr., and George Bloch, Cubmaster Joseph Kish, and Assistant Scoutmaster Jack Wilkins of Andalusia.

THANKSGIVING

What is Thanksgiving day? Is it just Turkey day, when people enjoy a glorious feast? Or shall we be able to look below the surface, and find something more in it than that?

Thanksgiving day was originally the result of the feeling of the forefathers that they had been blessed, and they wanted to make some recognition of that fact. The blessings that had come to them would seem extremely meager to us now. Back in 1621, the early settlers at Plymouth colony had suffered a winter of the most terrible deprivation. There were but 102 of them at the start, and in that awful first winter, 44 of that pitiful little band died from exposure to the cold and lack of wholesome food.

Those that remained, instead of sitting down to repine their losses and shiver with fear at the probable fate that awaited them, took hold when the spring came with a will and purpose to make good in their new land. They were rewarded with a good crop. Whereupon at the close of the harvest season, they appointed the first day of Thanksgiving, in gratitude to God for his mercies.

Their outlook was poor enough, judged by our standards. They did not know whether they could live through another winter. They knew perfectly well that they had a season of severe cold to meet in their primitive dwellings. But cheered by a good supply of food, they saw their greatest peril had passed. With grateful hearts they raised their psalms of Thanksgiving, and went ahead into the unknown future with a cheer.

And here, in our thankless lives, if things go wrong, for a while, we raise a howl of pain and see no cause for thankfulness. We of course have had our troubles. But even looking at our state in its most unfavorable light, the powers that rule the world have been good to our country. Let us too feel some sentiment of gratitude.

PROPORTIONAL VOTING

November 5th the people of Toledo went to the polls and voted, by proportional ballot, for a Council. By November 13th the ballots had been counted, and the people knew who had been elected.

A good deal of nonsense has been written and spoken about proportional representation. The proportional vote is supposed to be inapplicable to congressional elections, which as a rule are contests between two major parties. Nevertheless it is possible for a party to poll, nationally, a majority of the votes, and still have a minority in the house of representatives, due to the fact that the party's majority is overwhelming in a comparatively small number of districts.

But the proportional vote is said to be especially adapted to non-partisan elections, in which each candidate represents a specific principle, or a political group. After the voter has marked the order of his preferences and the counters have handled the same ballots over and over again and kept rather intricate books on them, the result is usually found to be the same as in the old-fashioned elections.

And now the WPA has discovered that there is no skilled labor on the relief rolls. Just another argument for the complete acceptability of the old leaf-raking project.

THANK YOU, AMERICA,

for more than a Million cars in 1935

This year Chevrolet has two very good reasons for saying, "Thank you, America."

One reason is that people have bought so many Chevrolet cars that production for the year will reach 1,040,000.

And the other reason is that they have placed a record number of orders for new 1936 Chevrolets during the first few weeks they have been on display.

Chevrolet is indeed happy to say, "Thank you, America," and to pledge continued adherence to the manufacturing and service policies which have won and held this friendship.

BOXING BOUTS TONIGHT AT CROYDON ARENA

Boxing will be resumed at the Croydon Arena tonight, when the fire company of that town will hold a benefit show with ten bouts between state amateurs, lads from Burlington, Trenton, Bristol and Croydon battling it out between them.

The controversy between the State Boxing Commission and the Amateur Athletic Union is still unsettled, so in order to give the fans who purchased tickets for the show that was postponed a break the Croydon Fire Company arranged with the Rescue Squad whereby the tickets will be honored at tonight's show.

Plenty of action is promised by the contestants, with the Burlington fighters being matched with the local entries.

Among the Burlington boys are Harry Shisler, 135 lbs.; B. Richob, 136 lbs.; Dick Ornd, 145 lbs.; James Daniels, 175 lbs.; Charles Oramer, lightweight; A. Haines, 133 lbs.; John Gaul, 135 lbs.; Tommy Hearn, 135 lbs.; Tony Carsons, 128 lbs.; Young Torpey, speedy flyweight from the Bensalem High School; Kid Foster, 140 lbs., from Hulmeville; Edmund Dugan, Bristol, and Walloping Wimpy, of Croydon.

ST. ANN'S BOUTS AGAIN HAVE BEEN CALLED OFF

The amateur boxing show scheduled for tomorrow night in the Italian Mutual Aid arena has been called off. The Middle Atlantic district of the A. A. U. has decided to postpone boxing shows indefinitely and will not issue any sanctions to the clubs in Pennsylvania promoting amateur boxing.

The A. A. U. is having a wrangle with the State Boxing Commission over the use of professional referees. The amateur union wishes to keep its same referees while the state commissioners are trying to force the amateurs to use professional referees who pay a state fee for their license. The A. A. U. will attempt to secure an injunction against the State Commission.

Meanwhile the decision does not affect those clubs in New Jersey and Delaware who belong to the Middle Atlantic district of the A. A. U., and at Riverside tonight, four Bristol boys will be in action with three more fighting at Lakewood, Thursday night. Promoter Mickey Giordano also has booked Harry Davis, Bristol colored flash, for an amateur bout in the Madison Square Garden, New York, and is working on a bout for Vince Della. The bouts in the Empire State are scheduled for next week.

RAY STEELE ON CARD TONIGHT AT THE ARENA

TRENTON, Nov. 27.—Ray Steele, one of matland's foremost campaigners, will be seen in action at the Trenton Arena tonight in the feature two fall out of three, 90-minute time bout, against Ralph Garibaldi, up and coming Italian grappler.

Steele has been one of the ace bone-benders in the grappling game and his fast and sensational style of grappling have drawn the fans all over the country to the arena in which he is appearing.

Last week Steele attained national publicity by pinning King Levinsky, Chicago heavyweight, in the first mixed boxing and wrestling bout in recent years. Twelve thousand St. Louis fans witnessed this feat.

Garibaldi earned the right to face Ray by downing Dr. Len Hall, rough and tumble mectico, in the last Arena show. Ralph is a fast speedy grappler and will extend Steele to the limit.

One of the most exciting semi-windups ever booked at the Arena will be contested when George "Crybaby" Koverly, ace Arena badman, clashes with Rusty Wescott, Hawaiian-born grappler, who is a real favorite with Arena fandom.

Charley Strack, Olympic grappler and a rough and ready hombre, tangles with Handsome Jack Donovan, Boston Irishman, in the feature 30-minute event.

Abe Kashey, Syrian Assassin, and a pet hatred of the fans, tangles with George Wilcheski, Boston College Pole, in the other 30-minute affair.

Twenty-five cents a day! What a small price to pay in order to secure tenants for your vacant house! Let the Courier "For Rent" ads. work for you.—(Advertisement.)

EDDINGTON TROJANS PLAY HERE TOMORROW

By Jack Orr

In a tune-up game for their big contest of the year the Bristol Recreation Eleven will meet the Eddington Trojans Thanksgiving Day on Leedom's Field.

The Recs were held idle last week when Bustleton, the scheduled opponent called the game off, two hours before the scheduled starting time. A frantic attempt to get an opponent for this small period was unsuccessful.

The Trojans are having a successful season and are attempting to do what no other club has been able to do—cross the Recs goal line while they were on their home lot. Coach Gile Dougherty is confident that the club's record will stand.

The local club received their only defeat a few weeks back when they battled Mount Holly. The Big Green gave the lads of the Jersey town quite a contest but were forced to drop the decision, 6-0.

Tomorrow they meet the Eddington Trojans and next Sunday the big game in independent circles will be held. The field is as yet undecided but a large crowd is expected, wherever the contest is held.

SPADACCINO QUILTS AS MANAGER OF ST. ANN'S

Eugene Spadaccino, manager of the St. Ann's A. A. basketball team, has tendered his resignation to the Bristol Amateur Basketball League. He will be replaced by Joseph Aita who will take over the reins of the team in the battle against the Moose, Friday night. Spadaccino will act in the capacity of director of the team and captain the team on the floor.

A change will also be made in the management of the Third Ward team which meets the Odd Fellows in the second tilt, Friday night. Vito Della, present manager, is leaving town and a successor will be appointed.

The Moose and Third Ward teams are deadlocked for first place with two victories and without a defeat.

Bristol High To Play Morrisville Tomorrow

In the starting lineup playing football for Coach Bill Dougherty for the final time, Dom Sagolla, local signal barker; Junes Zefferi, another back; Sam Schiffer, a guard; and John Messinelli, a wing. Al Proby and John Stallone, other seniors, will probably see action.

Morrisville High in seven contests have won five and dropped only one. Their other game ended in a deadlock, Quakertown, Langhorne, Fallington, Jenkintown and Flemington fell before the minions of Coach Hoffman, while a plucky Bensalem High defeated the highly touted Blue and Gold to the count of 6-0. Their tie was played with N. J. I. D.; the score was 13-13.

Bristol in nine games has defeated six opponents, dropped a pair of contests and also tied one. They have piled up 143 points to their opponents' 37.

The Bristol rooters are confident of victory and already troops are being mobilized for the destruction of the goal posts. The Cardinal and Gray fans are out to gain souvenirs for their triumph.
